G3 Gutter Cover wins Industry Awards

Pettisville, Ohio, August 10, 2007: Gutter Cover Manufacturer, Grater Gutter Guard announced today that the Company's G3 Gutter Cover has recently won national recognition by two Industry related groups:

Gutter Opportunities Magazine a supplement to Metal Roofing Magazine named G3 one of its "Top 5 Products of the year" this year. The award is determined by the responses of the magazine's over 30,000 readers. "After 11 years of producing and distributing quality covers in the limited area of Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan, we were pleasantly surprised to have our product validated by the national readership of Gutter Opportunities Magazine, said, Tim Barrett, President of Grater Gutter Guard. Our belief is that Contractors want a product that is easily installed, produces trouble free results and provides a significant ROI for their businesses, said Barrett. In our 11 years of manufacturing covers we have not had 1 warranty claim. We believe that this kind of performance is important to our Contractor clientele.

In addition, Grater Gutter Guard's product was awarded the prestigious "Members' Choice Award", by the Member stores of Do It Best Corp. Do It Best is a buying cooperative with over 4,000 Store Owner Members worldwide. "For our product to receive this kind of recognition within an organization that includes many career Building Supply Professionals, we truly are made to believe that the G3 Gutter Cover is the right product at the right time for this industry", Barrett said. "It is our hope that others will soon see that the Gutter Cover economics behind G3, combined with our 20 year warranty and just-in-time online ordering capabilities just make good business sense", he continued.

Grater Gutter Guard will be exhibiting its products at the upcoming 58th Annual MRCA Convention and Trade Show Oct. 24-26, 2007, at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center in Nashville, Tennessee.
